CHAPMAN & HALL'S NEW & FORTHCOMING BOOKS.

AUTUMN, 1905.

ALFRED RUSSEL WALLACE'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY.

MY LIFE: A RECORD OF EVENTS AND OPINIONS. By ALFRED RUSSEL WALLACE, Author of "Man's Place in the Universe," "Darwinism," "Geographical Distribution of Animals," "Natural Selection and Tropical Nature," "The Malay Archipelago." With numerous Portraits, Illustrations, Facsimile Letters, etc. Two vols. Demy 8vo, 25s. net.

It is anticipated that this work will be one of the most important publications of the autumn season. Besides giving full and extremely interesting details of the great scientist's early life and education, his first inclination and attraction towards science, and an anecdotal narrative of his travels on the Amazon and in the Malay Archipelago, it relates the historic incidents connected with his association with Darwin, gives full accounts of all the people he met, and a very particular history of his investigation of Spiritualism and the various controversies evolved from his theories. The book is written in a fascinatingly open and candid style, and is sure to be widely read.

THE LATEST TRIUMPH OF SCIENCE.

THE ORIGIN OF LIFE: its Physical Basis and DEFINITION. By J. BUTLER BURKE. With Photographs and Diagrams, etc. Demy 8vo, 16s. net.

While experimenting at the Cavendish Laboratory, Cambridge, to determine the effect of radium on sterilised bouillon, Mr. Burke recently found that he could secure the apparently spontaneous generation of growths, resembling bacteria, but which were neither bacteria nor crystals. Mr. Burke has put the results of his investigations and discovery into a book, and there is little doubt that it will be eagerly looked forward to by the whole of the scientific world, and its importance cannot be easily estimated.

FORTY YEARS OF A DIPLOMAT'S LIFE.

REMINISCENCES of a RETIRED DIPLOMAT. By Sir FREDERICK ROBERT ST. JOHN, K.C.M.G. With Portraits and Illustrations. Demy 8vo, 15s. net.

Sir Frederick St. John's reminiscences cover the wide range of forty years in the public service throughout Europe, Central and South America—the Near and Far East, as well as in the Far West. Sir Frederick's many diplomatic posts include—Attaché at Florence and at Stuttgart, Secretary at Peking, Constantinople, and Vienna; Secretary of Legation at Buenos Ayres and Rio Janeiro; Secretary of Embassy at Constantinople, Minister Resident in Central America, Colombo and Venezuela; and Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Belgrave and at Berne.

A NEW WORK BY W. H. MALLOCK.

THE RECONSTRUCTION OF BELIEF. By W. H. MALLOCK, Author of "Religion as a Credible Doctrine." Demy 8vo, 12s. net.

AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF JAVA.

JAVA: FACTS AND FANCIES. By AUGUSTA DE WITT. With 160 Illustrations. Demy 8vo, 14s. net.

AN EDITION DE LUXE, WITH COLOURED PLATES, OF

THE FIELDS OF FRANCE. By Madame MARY DUCLAUX (A. MARY F. ROBINSON). With 20 Illustrations in Colour by W. B. MACDOUGALL. Crown 4to, 21s. net.

It may be justly said that Madame Duclaux's book on rural France has become a classic. Its interest and value was in no way ephemeral, for in it Madame Duclaux gives the sense of that wonderful world of out-of-doors which seems fading from the horizon of the modern town-dweller. It is a book eminently suited for illustration, and Mr. MacDougall spent a long period in the districts dealt with in the volume in making a series of artistic paintings which are reproduced by the best colour process. Unlike many such books, the paintings were done to illustrate the text, and not the text written to the pictures.

A FASCINATING HISTORICAL MONOGRAPH.

WILHELMINA, MARGRAVINE OF BAIREUTH. By EDITH E. CUTHELL. With numerous Portraits. Two vols. Demy 8vo, 21s. net.

This is a romantic story from real history, dealing with a highly talented woman of the eighteenth century who moved in Continental Courts, and founded the fortunes of the town of Baireuth. It is constructed entirely from fresh material gathered from documents hitherto unknown, and gives a bright and spirited picture of Court life on the Continent one hundred years ago. In addition to the great amount of fresh material upon which the book is founded and which has not seen light before, there are many portraits, hitherto unpublished, scattered throughout the volumes.

A CHARMING AND STANDARD BOOK ON LACE.

THE LACE BOOK. By N. HUDSON MOORE, Author of "The Old China Book," "The Old Furniture Book," etc. With 70 Engravings, showing specimens of Lace, or its wear in famous Portraits, with Border, by C. E. CARTWRIGHT and Decorations after BODONI. 4to, 21s. net.

This is a handsomely illustrated history of lace from the earliest times. It is divided into five parts, dealing respectively with the Growth of Lace, Italian Lace, French and Spanish Laces, and English and Irish Lace. In the introductory part the author traces the whole history of lace manufacture in all countries in an exhaustive manner, and gives full details of the different styles of lace of the various periods.

FIGHTING FOR THE "ASHES."

AN AUSTRALIAN CRICKETER ON TOUR.

Reminiscences, Impressions, and Experiences of Two Trips. With Records of Matches and Views on English Cricket. By FRANK LAVER. With nearly 100 Illustrations from Photographs by the Author. Crown 8vo, 6s.

Mr. Laver's book is not a mere record of the cricket matches in which the Australian cricketers took part. It is for the most part a record of what a traveller sees and hears, and deals largely with the social aspect of the tenth and twelfth teams whilst in England, New Zealand, and America, and during their journey to the Mother Country and back. The book, therefore, not only appeals to the cricket enthusiast, but to that large section of the public whose interest in cricket is less ardent.

A NEW BOOK BY THE AUTHOR OF "HONORIA'S PATCHWORK."

A COAT OF MANY COLOURS. Woven from Honoria's Letters to the Best Friend, and Patched with Pieces from a Certain Note-book. By the Author of "Honoria's Patchwork." With numerous Illustrations. Crown 8vo, 6s.

HARRY FURNISS ON DRAWING.

HOW TO DRAW IN PEN AND INK. By HARRY FURNISS. With numerous Illustrations. Demy 8vo, 3s. 6d. net.

THE WIT AND WISDOM OF DICKENS.

THE BOZ BIRTHDAY BOOK. Compiled by J. W. T. LEY, Hon. Secretary of the Dickens Fellowship. Containing an Index to Subjects and a Portrait of Dickens. Crown 8vo, 3s. 6d. net, cloth ; 5s. net leather.

ANDREW LANG ON "EDWIN DROOD."

THE PUZZLE OF DICKENS'S LAST PLOT. By ANDREW LANG. With Illustrations by S. LUKE FILDES, R.A. Crown 8vo, 2s. 6d. net.

SHAKSPERIAN SYNOPSIS. Outlines or Arguments of the Plays of Shakspere. By J. WALKER MCSPADDEN, Author of "Synopses of Dickens's Works." Small crown 8vo, 2s. 6d. net.

THE MONTEZUMA EDITION

OF THE WORKS OF

William Hickling Prescott,

TO BE COMPLETED IN

22 Vols., 8vo. Price £13 15s. net.

Of this edition, 12 vols. are already published, and the remaining 10 will follow with the least possible delay. The paper, printing, and illustrations are of the highest possible excellence, and no expense has been spared to make the book a veritable triumph of book-making. As there are only 100 copies for sale in England, early application is necessary.

This edition not only contains the notes of the late John Foster Kirk, who was Prescott's secretary, and revised the later editions of his works, but it has also been re-edited by Dr. Wilfred H. Munro, who has devoted himself for years to the study of the Reformation period—the era most closely connected with the subjects of Prescott's Works. He has embodied in his notes the additional light which the historical research of the last half-century has shed on the events treated of by Prescott.

The illustrations are 110 in number, and are full-page photogravures engraved and printed in Paris by the Goupil process in monochrome. They are on India paper.

MR. MELROSE'S AUTUMN LIST.

G. B. LANCASTER'S NEW NOVEL.

A SPUR TO SMITE: A Novel. By G. B. LANCASTER, Author of "Sons o' Men." Crown 8vo, cloth boards, 6s.

FIRST PRESS NOTICE.—Mr. W. L. Courtney in Daily Telegraph: "Represents a further and more mature stage in Mr. Lancaster's literary career. He has learnt many things in the interval—a sustained and continuous interest of plot, the value of a given design, careful analysis of character, and other things which ought to form part of the furniture of the novelist's mind. The strength, the force, the actuality remain, for still the taste on the palate is like some of those rough colonial wines which savour of the young soil on which the grapes are grown. The book preserves its characteristic quality of literary work done by some eager, feverish writer, quite unhampered by the traditions of the past."

NOVEL BY A NEW WRITER.

A HEART'S HARMONY: A Novel. By ETHEL M. FORBES. Crown 8vo, cloth boards, 6s.

This novel is the first effort of a new writer, the wife of one of the most brilliant of the younger ministers in Glasgow, himself an author. It is the story of the development of character through suffering and tragedy, but there is no sentimentality, and the literary style has great distinction.

NEW GIFT BOOKS.

FAMOUS BRITISH ADMIRALS. By ALBERT LEE, Author of "England's Sea Story," etc. Fully Illustrated. Large crown 8vo, cloth boards.

"Famous British Admirals" will win a place of its own as a volume of concise yet picturesque and spirited biographies of our British Sea-Kings. It is written by Mr. Albert Lee, whose "England's Sea Story" gained so favourable a reception last year.

TWO VOLUMES BY ROBERT LEIGHTON.

THE GREEN-PAINTED SHIP: A Romance of Sea Adventure. By ROBERT LEIGHTON. Illustrated by J. W. CHARLTON. Imperial 16mo, cloth, bevelled boards, oliveine edges, 6s.

WITH NELSON IN COMMAND: A Romance of the Baltic Expedition. By ROBERT LEIGHTON. Illustrated by H. L. SHINDLER. Imperial 16mo, cloth, bevelled boards, oliveine edges, 6s.

The Christmas gift-book season would be incomplete without a contribution from the pen of Mr. Leighton, who is regarded by so many boys and older boys as the legitimate claimant to the place left vacant in the story-telling world by the death of G. A. Henty. "The Green-Painted Ship" is a thrilling tale of sea-adventure and treasure-finding, and "To Match Another Foe" is a spirited romance of Nelson's days.

TWO BOOKS BY EVELYN EVERETT-GREEN.

MADAM OF CLYST-PEVEREL. By E. EVERETT-GREEN, Author of "The Three Graces," etc. Illustrated by COLBRON PEARSE. Imperial 16mo, cloth, gilt top.

Every year Miss Everett-Green's reputation as a writer of fiction grows stronger, and "Madam of Clyst-Peverel" will increase the popularity she has earned.

MISS GREYSHOTT'S GIRLS. By EVELYN EVERETT-GREEN. Illustrated by ARTHUR TWIDLE. Imperial 16mo, cloth, gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

Miss Greyshott's "young ladies"—they are only four—are all true types of English girlhood, and their hopes and ambitions, their adventures and misadventures at the critical period of leaving school for a larger world, are narrated with delightful humour and sympathy and keen insight.

THE BLACK FIFTEEN; and other School Stories. By W. E. CULE. Illustrated. Small imperial 16mo, cloth boards.

Eighteen stories—all dealing with the life of a public school. The first is the story of an uncanny football match, in which a boy who has lost his train is forced to take part, much against his will. All the stories deal with the same school.

THE ROSE-COLOURED BUS; and other Tales of the Fairies. By the Author of "Child-Voices," etc. With numerous delightful Illustrations by FLORENCE MEYERHEIM. Crown 8vo, cloth, 2s.

The book contains Ten Fairy Stories which should prove not only fascinating to children but interesting to those who are older. "The Rose-Coloured Bus," "The Green Jug," "The Way Home," and "The Beautiful Harbour" are charming stories.

RELIGIOUS AND DEVOTIONAL WORKS.

THE RIGHT LIFE, AND HOW TO LIVE IT. By HENRY A. STIMSON. Crown 8vo, cloth boards, 3s. 6d. net.

[In Preparation.] "The Right Life" here indicated is the clean life of virtue, such as parents desire their families to live, and teachers hold up for their scholars. The book is for young men, and its style is simple, direct and persuasive.

PROGRESS AND PERFECTING. Studies in Christian Discipleship. By the Rev. W. W. SIDREY, Author of "The Silent Christ." Foolscap 8vo, cloth boards, 1s. 6d. net. [In Preparation.]

"Progress and Perfecting" consists of a series of beautiful addresses on Christian Discipleship, by the author and preacher whose "Silent Christ" has given so much delight to sermon lovers.

THE POWER OF PLAY. A Discussion on the Place and Power of Play in Child Culture. By G. HAMILTON ARCHIBALD, Author of "Bible Lessons for Little Beginners." Crown 8vo, cloth boards.

THE GIRL'S BOOK OF HEALTH. By WALTER N. EDWARDS, F.C.S. Small crown 8vo, cloth. [Ready.] 1/-

BOOKS TO READ

The Authors of this work have had the singular good fortune to enlist the aid of no fewer than four Admirals on the Active List—each of them the highest authority on the special subject on which his counsel has been sought. The book is an attempt to bridge the century that separates Nelson's last command from that of Lord Charles Beresford, by applying Nelson's spirit to some of the naval problems of to-day. It is also a singularly penetrating and discriminating study of Nelson's temperament in its strength and weakness, showing him just as he was. A book of deepest interest to every admirer of "the greatest sailor since our world began."

E. Hallam Moorhouse

An historical novel with an irresistible charm. It deals with a period of absorbing interest, and the author, whilst not forgetting the romantic side of his work, presents a living picture, full of actuality, of the conflicts of the time around which his hero and heroine move.
